Lois and Clark season 1 episode guide

The investigation of Lois and Clark leads them to their father Lois, Dr. Sam Lane (Denis Arndt), who works in sports medicine and discovers that the fighters are actually cyborg. Later, Perry discovers that the warrant trask used was fake and Lois and Clark start investigating the brask. Lois becomes obsessed with the superman and tries everything to be the one who will have the story. Lin manages to teach Superman how to fight Jzuk-Mao (Nathan Jung) who will wear the bracelets, so he won't be killed. Episode: 1x04 | AirDate: October 10, 1993 A scientist named Alan Morris (Leslie Jordan) invents a suit that makes it invisible. On their first confrontation, Superman is defeated because of the Kryptonite that is hidden in Johnny's body. Leigh-Anne is enrolled at the Beauty Parlor School and got Jesse in Kindergarten. Meanwhile, Jimmy's father, Jack (James Read), returns to Metropolis after 4 years. Meanwhile, two scientists Rollo and Emmet Vale (Christian Clemenson and John Rubinstein) create robots that they use to steal jewelry. Episode: 2x16 | AirDate: March 12, 1995 Lois and Clark try again for their first date when Jimmy is arrested for a murder. Lois, who can't understand her behavior, is frustrated and ends up accepting Scardino's (Jim Pirri) proposal to go out on a date. There, Lois learns that two (and later a third) of her former spouses of her classmates have disappeared and decides to investigate these disappearances to find out what happened. This gets worse when Clark leaves the planet daily to collaborate with Linda and work for the star Metropolis. After the press interview, Superman continues to arrest Diana. Lois and Clark investigate the incident and discover that an old friend of Lois's from college named Ryan Wiley (Charles Rocket), who presumably died a year ago, was present at the demonstration. All in the everyday acting strange and crazy in love but Clark doesn't. When Lex hears where Lois is and that she believes she is Wanda, he pretends to be Kent (a man from the book that Wanda wants but believes she cannot have) and lies to her about who Clark is and what to tell him so the two of them can be together. Dr. Baines sets up an accident where the three of them will be killed but Clark releases himself and saves Lois and Jimmy. Episode: 2x12 | Airdate: Jan 22, 1995 Dr. Faraday (Harvey J. Their investigation leads them to Schott who gets arrested for his creation but also regrets and makes clear that he cares and loves kids. Clark helps Lois to restore her reputation and they discover that Stuart is not dead but he staged his death along with his best friend Oliver (Jeff Joseph), so people would leave him alone. Lois tells him that this would not happen because he will be a good father and will put his family first. Episode: 1x11 | Airdate: Dec 12, 1993 Lois decides to take a weekend off from work and books the honeymoon suit on a luxurious hotel to relax. In the meantime, Superman asks from toy store owners to donor toys to the orphanage kids and Lois plans a Christmas dinner for family and friends. When John Dillingier (Robert Clohessy) and Al Capone(William Devane) also appear in Metropolis, things get even more weird and Lois and Clark discover that a scientist named Professor Emil Hamilton (John Pleshette) cloned the criminals because he believed he could alter people's personalities. After her experience as Ultra Woman, Lois realizes how difficult is for Clark to be Superman and trying to save the world all the time. Using those pranks, he can terrify Lois while at the same time, he uses them as a distraction to steal a diamond and rob banks. Perry and Clark try to protect Lois from the killer while they all work together to find out who is behind the murder. When she finds out what her boss was planning to do and why she wants the computer, she helps Superman prevent the catastrophe and then gets along with her son. After Johnny is hit by the police during a robbery, the two scientists take his head and turn him into a cyborg that is powered by kryptonite. Cash doesn't care if Superman might be hurt or die since he sees him as a bigger threat than Lord Nor, and they believe killing everyone is the only way to stop them. Superman destroys his gun and Griffin goes back to jail while Lois finally gets an exclusive interview with the President. Meanwhile, Gretchen kidnaps Wallace's sister (Cindy Williams) (and Lois for tracking and finding out where she is hiding) to force Wallace to help her gain Superman's powers. Later it is discovered at the hospital that, despite the head trauma, he does not recognize Clark at all. The clone asks Luthor about it, but he doesn't get any answers, only he has to kill Superman as soon as possible. Later, a bomb planted by Lex that seems to be detonated by Jack (Chris Demetral), completely destroys the newspaper and Jack ends up in prison as a scapegoat who was framed by Lex and Mrs. Cox. His father, Sam (Harve Presnell), also brought along his new girlfriend, a cyborg named Baby Cunderson (Kathy Truesler). Tempus and Wells travel back in time, but Wells changes the date to 1866 instead of 1966 to buy some time, while at the same time leaving instructions on how to build the time machine. Lois and Clark get married, but at the end of the episode it is revealed that Lois who is with Clark is also a clone. Lois and Clark realize that they are in the program when they notice that Clark has no h superpowers. Lois manages to help Superman and ensures that Arianna and the duplicate are arrested. Episode: 3x14|Date: 21 January 1996 Tempus (Lane Davies) returns to Metropolis and kidnaps Lois into a parallel universe where things are very different from his universe: A' died a couple of years ago before Clark started working on the A'Daily PlanetA', Jimmy A' the owner of the A'Daily PlanetA', Perry is running for mayor against Tempus and especially, No Superman. When she later calls Lois and asks her to meet him, Lois arrives but Allie is killed before he talks to her. She kisses Superman wearing a kryptonite lipstick, which makes Superman sick because kryptonite enters his body and spreads like a cancer. Toni finds Lois and Clark hidden in the warehouse and Clark, to save at least his cover, overtakes Lois. Episode: 1x14|Date: January 23, 1994 A child named Nick (Jarrett Lennon) is kidnapped and when his mother Rose (Eve Plumb) asks Lois and Clark for help, the two begin to investigate all recent child abductions. Episode: 4x11|Date: December 15, 1996 An elf casts a looping time spell. His early attempts are not very successful as Clark manages to appear in front of her every time as Superman, before he realizes who he really is. This makes Clark no longer want to be Superman, but a conversation with Lois changes his mind and brings over gifts. Clark Leit tries to find the device by asking Lois but when Superman comes to save her, Leit uses the suit to steal from the land he wanted to build the "Lex harbor" at a low price. Eventually, they discover the true identity of Arianna as Lex's ex-wife and reveal the truth. But not before Arianna catches Lois and attempts to kill Superman using Kryptonite making it look like Lois did. Intergang takes advantage of this to kidnap perry while Superman wonders why he acts that way. Superman falls ill and Lois asks for his father's help. Perry retires while Clark and Jimmy have no jobs. Amy tells Lois about a portion that Dr. Carlton was giving them smart but if you stop using it, you're going to run out again. Baron takes Lois who he plans to kill her and Clark faces his own fear of saving her. When Superman starts asking questions about the clone's childhood, he starts the clone wondering if his "father" A was lying to him. When Lex hires a young man named chip to be Perry's boss, Perry leaves the newspaper. It is later revealed that Dr. Baines works with Luthor and wants to sabotage the launch for their benefit. While Superman and Eugene work for the antidote, Lois and Detective Reed (Melanie Mayron) discover that Henry is not dead Lena and I are behind the virus. He writes the story but skips the part of how Superman's powers were copied while Gretchen crosses as a coroner, intending on bringing Lex's body back to the police when everyone believes he is dead. Lois A is proud of his partner, but she also warns him that the next time he will force him to be her date on a night when she is rewarded she tears it up, making both laugh. When all is done, Reed arrests Henry and Lena. During the interrogation, TRASK finds none of the information he wants and leaves. When Lucille and Nell find out that A' really happened, they try to transfer the ultra-woman powers to Lucille while Superman asks Dr. Klein (Kenneth Kimmins) to help recreate the Nell weapon used to steal his powers. Lois sends it to Dr. Friskin (Barbara Bosson), a psychotherapist, to help him. Clark puts the pieces together and tells Lois that Patrick A' is the one who steals the articles to make a druid sacrifice using it as the human sacrifice, but Lois believes Clark is just jealous. Despite being there, Congress witness Ian Harrington (Charles Frank) perhaps making a dirty deal across the street for a top secret government project called "shock wave" with arms dealer Thaddeus Roarke (Charles Cyphers). Meanwhile, Lex finds the last piece of Kryptonite and manages to trap Superman in a cage as his marriage to Lois begins. At the cemetery, a man named William Wallace Webster Waldecker (Leslie Jordan) tries to commit suicide and the Superman stops him. Meanwhile, the rest of the children discover that Clark A' superman, but Clark manages to trick them that he won't. The treatment was successful and superman became well, just in time to save Lois and her parents' life. Meanwhile, Lois wants
